

A Visit to the National Memorial Arboretum in Alrewas to pay my respects for the VJ Day Veterans. The service on the Saturday was closed to the general public so that Veterans from the 2nd WW could attend. There were 40 Veterans aged from 96 -100yrs in attendance. I wanted to visit the memorials before all the floral tributes were removed. These are just a few of the pictures I took. Val Pollard.

