

GOOD SHEPHERD. Our gifts to the Pantry at Good Shepherd Mission are very well received and much valued as the needs continue to grow. Of late, the quantity of our donations has become diminished and we would be really grateful for renewed support. If you could add perhaps one item per week to your food shop and pass it on to the Pantry, they would be most grateful. There is a large green box in the Church Hall for collection. Many Thanks. Wendy and John Bate.

BECKMINSTER @100 BOOK: Could we ask those of you that are still intending to add your special, notable or important memories of being a member/or belonging to Beckminster; and those of you that have any interesting facts about the life and work of Beckminster over time please be aware that we are now working to a very tight deadline and we need to have any information you would like included in the book by 28 February 2025. Thank you to the many of you that have already supplied memories or information and we look forward to receiving additional information as soon as possible. As with the previous messages, please give any information you have either to Sue or Graham Lloyd directly, or to Sue Lorimer in the church office. Thank you.

PAST MINISTERS: As part of the Centenary Book we are looking to write a small piece about previous ministers (may only be a sentence). We are struggling for something to write about the following, Cecil King, Jill Hoodless, Sister Dorothy Taylor, Sue Huband and Alison Brookes. Would you be able to help please or if not perhaps suggest someone who could. If you have something, please let Graham or Sue Lloyd or myself know. Many thanks Tim.
